

This proposed legislation has the potential to be the worst concept in the history of communications in this country. The entire HF spectrum will be destroyed, disrupting every conceivable service and use to which the spectrum is now put. There can be no way to be certain that radiation will not occur in excess of suggested parameters. I urge the Commission to reject this concept.